

Why Choose Tracey Bell

Choosing Tracey Bell Dental and Aesthetic Medical Clinic means choosing quality, patient-centred care backed by decades of experience and professional integrity. Our longevity speaks for itself, with nearly 30 years of faithful service on the Isle of Man and a stalwart presence in Liverpool since 2008. We take pride in our enduring relationships with our patients, some of whom have entrusted their dental and aesthetic needs to us for nearly 30 years.

Our approach to care involves continuous learning, reflection, and insight from the treatments we provide and their success. This practice underpins our ability to deliver the highest quality of care and continually improve our services. Our commitment to quality, patient care, honesty, and professionalism sets us apart in the industry and has been recognized by patients and peers alike.

Dr Bell is at the helm of our team, a dedicated professional with post-graduate qualifications in various dentistry and aesthetic medicine subjects. Her contributions to the field are notable, with articles published in dentistry and aesthetic medicine since 1993. As an educator and a senior lecturer at Salford University from 2018 to 2020, she has shared her expertise on the role of non-surgical facial aesthetics with the next generation of practitioners.

Dr. Bell is not just a healthcare provider; she is a scholar with a Diploma in Law and a Masters in Medical Law and Ethics. Her knowledge and expertise are often called upon for expert reports, further indicating her respected standing in the field.

In conclusion, choosing Tracey Bell Dental and Aesthetic Medical Clinic means choosing peace of mind from experience, empathy, and understanding. For 30 years, we have provided dentistry and aesthetics to thousands of patients, dedicating countless hours to clinical practice. Our commitment to our patients drives us to continue excelling in our services and maintaining the highest dental and aesthetic care standards.
